FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
Methodism's Downtown Cathedral
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

This $2,000,000.00 structure, covering an entire city block, was built in 1930 at Fifth and Florence Streets. Organized in 1854, the church now enjoys a membership of 5,300 citizens.

Dear Mother — 8:15 a.m.
The mail continues cook-
+ the conference interesting.
It's particularly good to get to meet so many of the people we have been with. Have just now
breakfast for breakfast.
Tonight we visit Brite
College of the Bible.
Love Jules

Photographed and Published by John A. Stryker, Western Fotocolor, Fort Worth, Texas

ART-5366

"Artistichrome"

POST CARD

by FOTOCOLOR

Mrs George Walker
112 Lake Ave
Orangeburg
New Jersey